FAMILIES NEED the services of
CAMPS and YOUTH PROGRAMS

BermudaCamps.com is the premier online resource for connecting families to various camps and youth program information.

Nearly 80% of school aged children are between the ages of 5 to 16 *, in school for 10 months, with almost 15 weeks of school breaks a year. Families island-wide are continuously searching for camps and after-school programs.

Camps are held during school breaks, ranging from summer break to several mid-term breaks, in the months of February, March/ April, June through September, October/November and December.

Families also search for programs offering extra-curricular activities and/or support after-school, evenings and weekends.

BermudaCamps.com knows the importance of camps and programs to families, children and the community. Through these services children can discover other interests, gain self-confidence, build responsibility, broaden social skills and create friendships.

Our Mission

To connect families with camp and program information.

Our Vision

To provide a comprehensive online camp and youth program directory with easy access to information in one central place.

Testimonials

from parents and families . . .

Thank you for putting together this great website!! It has become my number one resource for camp and extra-curricular activity information. I am looking forward to seeing it become a complete list of ALL youth activities available in Bermuda and encourage everyone to get on board.
Rosalind Wingate

This website really is great and it has taken so much stress out of trying to find camps for my kids! I have recommended it to many colleagues and friends!
Julie Marshall

I love this site! Just what I've been looking for to find out about all the camps being offered Island-wide.
Ngadi Kamara

What a superb website! I was able to pick out some great camps from your website.
Kim Preston-Nisbett

I want to thank you again for your consideration, dedication & hard work putting this together and supporting the parents/community.

"I am pleased to endorse BermudaCamps.com. There has been a lot of planning with this company, so it can provide a much-needed service for parents and camp operators, Island-wide. BermudaCamps.com professionalism and user friendly website will make it easier to look for programs for kids. I had the pleasure of using their services this past summer and found it to be a tremendous help with bringing awareness to the public about my pro soccer clinic. I look forward to working with BermudaCamps.com as I bring more community programs to the island."
